Hi Bry and the rest of the crew....nope, didnt get them.
I just figured you were busy and forgot...no big deal.
Send the schematics if you get a chance, but dont feel bad about it.

I'll probably work up something along that line here soon anyhow, but got the "Flu" right now, so not doing much.

I've got a box full of parts, a crystal for 40 and some preliminary math done for the networks. So, soon perhaps.

73 and keep up the good work.

OK folks - I am sending the schematics off to Doug via e-mail.

If anyone else needs them you can get them directly off the WWW at:

<http://www.mnsinc.com/bry/hamfiles.htm>

BUT if anyone does NOT have a web browser, then I will be happy to e-mail them to you also!

Hopefully everyone has a way to view JPG and GIF files on their computers!
